AVALON – PRECISION ELECTRONICS, DELIVERED GLOBALLY

What's Different?

- Avalon's well-strategized business plan focuses on high-mix, flexible volume production across diverse sectors like industrial, rail, aerospace, medical, communications, and emerging industries. This strategy mitigates concentration risk by prioritizing complex integrated solutions with significant engineering content, leading to robust gross and EBITDA margins.
- A significant strength of the company lies in its global presence, encompassing both manufacturing facilities and a diverse customer base, primarily in the U.S. Operating a manufacturing base in the U.S. offers a distinct advantage in onboarding new customers, particularly those prioritizing quality. Once clients are comfortable, there's a strategic option to transition manufacturing to India, leveraging its lower production costs.
- Avalon's USP is a vertically integrated business model, offering end-to-end solution—from new product development and design to volume production of PCBs and box-build manufacturing across high-margin verticals. This enables Avalon to serve as a one-stop partner for Fortune 500 customers, delivering complete product solutions under one roof.
- Avalon thrives on long-term customer relationships, with ~80% of revenue coming from the customers with whom Avalon has been partnered on an average of ~8 years. This trend is also evident with newer customers in the Railways, Aerospace, and Industrials verticals.

Opportunities

- Going forward, Avalon sees significant growth potential in upselling and cross-selling from the multinational customer base. Long-standing engagement with its customers benefits Avalon from high switching costs. Customers face significant expenses, time, and effort if they were to transition to alternative EMS providers, effectively creating a strong barrier to churning.
- The Indian government has strategically implemented various policies and initiatives to unlock the potential of the EMS industry and expand the nation's electronics sector. The Indian government has further launched a new Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for electronic components and sub-assemblies, backed by a budget outlay of INR 229 billion.
- The Indian government's emphasis on infrastructure development, including electrification and modernization of railways, and metro train expansions. The Kavach System implemented by the Indian Railways is a significant opportunity that can be capitalized by EMS Companies. This is all to lead increase in demand for signalling systems, pilot seating, Tracking systems, braking systems, battery Box, Passenger Information systems, sensors etc., where Avalon has a strong presence.
- The Clean Energy Management Systems sector encompasses Electric Vehicles (EVs), Solar, and Hydrogen technologies. The U.S. residential energy storage market is also on a rapid growth trajectory.

BSE – CONNECTING CAPITAL WITH OPPORTUNITY

What's Different?

- At present only ~9.5% of Indian households invest in any securities market product (stocks or mutual funds). Within that group, ~5.3% invest specifically in direct equities (shares of companies) & ~4% of Indians invest into Mutual funds. BSE is well positioned to capture this theme. BSE has a ~7% market share in Cash Equity turnover.
- Derivatives Market Share gains – BSE has launched SENSEX & BANKEX options contracts during FY24. BSE has consistently gained market share in index options space & now commands ~44% & 28% market share in the options notional & premium turnover respectively, at the end of Nov 2025.
- Colocation Services – BSE has started to focus more on Colocation racks built out to be offered to high frequency traders in near future.
- Indices Business – BSE indices like SENSEX, is being tracked & benchmarked by passive funds to the tune of INR 2.3 Trillion. More equity as well as debt indices are being launched in near future.

Opportunities

- Being an exchange, BSE is central to the mega trend of financialization & equitization of savings in India & deliver robust compounding of earnings for a very long period of time.
- BSE has 28% market share in the options market as of Nov 2025, & data suggests that BSE has been consistently gaining on account of product acceptability, new member activation & product maturity. Further product launches & deepening of existing products can take the share higher.
- BSE has taken several steps to gain cash turnover market share, improvement from 7% share is highly likely given the steps taken by the management.
- The exchange is working on increasing revenue optionalities ahead, with improving clearing business, initiatives to improve cash market share via Smart Order Routing (SOR), BSE futures product adoption, co-location fees (increasing racks from 300 in FY25 to 500 by end of FY26), indices business, BSE star MF platform 2.0's revamp, India international exchange (Gift City) business & others. These opportunities provide revenue optionalities for the exchange.

- Market for organized second-hand high-end watches is also seeing good traction and KDDL already opened its first second-hand watch shop in Delhi.
- The precision engineering business is back to pre-covid levels and company is getting enquiries from Auto and electrical segment.

- Regulatory requirement of PAN card for transactions beyond 2 lakhs and tax collection at source for high value transactions have further dented the unorganized segment.
- Watch market in India is Rs 13500 crore market with ~20% from international brands.
- Ethos limited is listed and KDDL owns 61%
